America has been subject to the greatest threat to its collective existence. More dangerous than any foreign army, and more damaging than any famine or drought. This internal rot brought on by years of hatred and bigotry has convinced more and more Americans that we, as a country, must change. The strength of America lies in its people, all people, regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation or religious belief, only together can we truly change.
Normalizing and Accepting LGBTQ+ Individuals Will Unite Our Communities

We have the power to make a real difference in people's lives. By respecting LGBTQ+ individuals and who they are, we could usher in a new age of understanding and community. It wouldn't take extreme effort or difficulty, but simply a change of mind. Make the change that only you can make.

Only you can help solve this issue. Stand up for what is right. Educate those who do not understand. Do not tolerate bigotry or hate.
