University of Montana Global Public Health Minor & Institute for Health and Humanities present:

Global Public Health

2019 Spring Lecture Series

Wednesdays 6:30 pm, Gallagher Business Bldg, Room #123, University of Montana

Free and Open to the Public!

JAN 16
Peter Koehn, PhD
Prof. Political Science; Director
Global Public Health Minor, UM
“Multitudes Are Crossing Borders: Arising Challenges for Global Health & Future Public Health Professionals”

JAN 23
Kevin Dietle,
BSN, M.Ed.
UM Campus Peace Corps Representative
“Health Education Experiences with the Peace Corps”

JAN 30
Kirsten Tucker
Pre-medical & Global Public Health student, & Global Grizzly at UM

FEB 6
Darin Bell, MD
Family Medicine Residency of Western Montana, UM
“How Healthcare in Borneo: The Interconnection Between Environmental & Human Health”

FEB 13
Joseph Carlson
Global Public Health & Exercise Science student at UM
“India: Chaotic Fluidity — Perceptions from a Rural Health Internship”

FEB 20
Benjamin Winters
Regional Director-Africa, AKROS
“Preachers or Pediatricians? Untangling the Mystery of Community Behavior Change in Public Health”

FEB 27
Phil Seidenberg,
MD
Asst. Clinical Director & Assoc. Professor of Emergency Medicine, UM
“Child Health in Zambia: Notes from the Field”

MAR 6
Donna Bainbridge,
PT, EdD, AT-Ret
Special Olympics Global Clinical Advisor; Adjunct Prof, UM
“Inclusive & Equitable Health & Wellness for Persons with Intellectual Disability around the Globe: How Special Olympics Fosters Systems Change”

MAR 13
Lisa Parks
2018 MacArthur Fellow; MIT Professor of Comparative Media Studies; Director of Global Media Technologies & Cultures Lab
“How Information Technologies Impact Quality of Life in Africa: Rethinking Dominant Assumptions”

MAR 20
Breanna Barger-Kamate, MD
Attending Physician, Sacred Heart Pediatric Emergency Medicine; Chair & Founder, Mali Medical Relief Fund
“Montana to Mali and Back Again: One UM Grad’s Journey to a Career in Global Health”

APR 3
Chris Siegler
Peace Corp Volunteer, Sierra Leone, 1967-69; Board member, Village Hope, Inc, an economic development NGO
“The Secret Ingredient in International Development”

APR 10
Deborah Goldman,
CNM, ARNP, MPH
Global Health Service Partnership volunteer, Seed Global Health; Global Health Nurse Midwife Consultant
“Addressing High Maternal Mortality & the Right to Safe, Respectful Maternity Care”

APR 17
Leigh Taggart, MPH,
BSN
Health Program Coordinator, Atlas Cultural Foundation; Adjunct Professor, MSU-Billings
“Sustainable Community Development in Morocco’s High Atlas Mountains”

APR 24
Jonah Attebery, MD
Assistant Professor, Pediatric Critical Care, University of Nebraska Medical Center
“The Head & the Heart: What Global Health Research has to Teach us About Healthcare in Montana”

APR 24
Spring Celebration!
8 pm President’s Room, Brantley Hall, UM
Help GPH celebrate an eventful year of excellence at our annual spring reception. Light refreshments will be served.