The Humanities Institute is pleased to announce:

The 2017 and 2018 recipients of the Summerfield Baldridge Book Subvention Grant for Humanities Publications

2018 Baldridge Grant recipient:
Professor Anya Jabour, Department of History: Sophonisba Breckinridge and Women's Activism in Modern America (University of Illinois Press: forthcoming).

2017 Baldridge Grant recipient:
Associate Professor Jody Pavilack, Department of History: Mining for the Nation: The Politics of Chile’s Coal Communities from the Popular Front to the Cold War (Penn State, 2011; Spanish translation: forthcoming).

The Baldridge Book Subvention Fund supports the publishing of scholarly books by H&S faculty in the areas of African American Studies, Economics, English, History, Liberal Studies, Linguistics, Modern and Classical Languages & Literatures, Native American Studies, Philosophy and Women’s, Gender and Sexuality Studies. This fund is meant to support costs that an author may be obligated to pay to a publisher in order to accomplish production. Examples of such costs include photograph reproductions, translations and indexing.
