Lockridge History Workshop, 2014-2015 Schedule
University of Montana, Department of History

Fall Semester 2014

9/12 – Jon Hall, PhD Candidate, University of Montana
   “‘At the Tender Mercies of Loafers and Sausage Makers’: Extralegal Power, Shadow Economies, and the Commodification of Canine Bodies, 1840-1880”

9/26 – Janine Giordano Drake, Asst. Professor of History, Univ. of Great Falls

10/10 – Jim Sparrow, Associate Professor of History, University of Chicago
   “Morgenthau’s Dilemma”

10/24 – Chelsea Chamberlain, MA Candidate, University of Montana
   “‘When an Angel Face Covers Moral Deformity’: Children and Moral Imbecility in the Gilded Age”

11/7 – Anya Jabour, Professor of History, University of Montana
   “A ‘Tempest in a Teapot’? Debating Women’s Rights at the Seventh Pan American Conference, Montevideo, Uruguay, 1933”

11/21 – Dane Cash, Assistant Professor of History, Carroll College
   “‘History Has Begun a New Chapter’: The Korean War and the Making of the New Right”

Spring Semester 2015

2/6 – Jordan Graham, MA Student, UM
2/20 – John Dunkum, MA Student, UM
3/6 – John Eglin, Professor of History, UM
3/20 – Gillian Glaes, Visiting Associate Professor of History, UM
4/17 – Pat O’Connor, PhD Student, UM

- Workshops begin at 4:10PM in LA 250 and last about 1 ½ hours.
- Papers are pre-circulated by email.
- Contact Professor Kyle G. Volk kyle.volk@umontana.edu with any questions.