Students interested in earning a combined major in history/political science must complete the following courses:

4 credits
HSTR 101 or 102 European Civilization ________

8 credits
HSTA 101 and 102 American History ________ ________

1 credit
HSTR 200 Introduction to Historical Methods ________

3 credits
HSTA 255 Montana ________

3 credits
world history elective: Asian, Islamic, Latin American, International ________

3 credits
American history upper-division elective ________

3 credits
European history upper-division elective ________

3 credits
upper-division history elective ________

3 credits
approved upper-division history writing course (UDW) ________

3 credits
PSCI 210 Intro American Government ________

3 credits
PSCI 220 Intro Comparative ________

3 credits
PSCI 230 International Relations ________

3 credits
PSCI 250 Political Theory ________

9 credits
American government/public law upper-division electives ________ ________ ________

9 credits
comparative/international relations upper-division electives ________ ________ ________

9 credits
Complete 9 credits in one field: economics, geography, psychology, or sociology ________ ________ ________

3 credits
EDU 497.10 (C&I 428) Teaching Middle & Secondary Social Studies ________

73 credits

Students must be formally admitted to the Teacher Education Program and complete all of the professional education licensure requirements. Students who complete the history/political science combined major are eligible for a teaching license in social studies broadfield. See the College of Education catalog or website (www.coehs.umt.edu/currinst/seced) or Jean Luckowski (ED 303) for more information.

March 2011