Landmarks You’ll See

- Inner City (Innenstadt)
- Karl-Marx-Hof
- The Ring (Ringstraße):
  - City Hall (Rathaus)
  - Imperial Theater (Burgtheater)
  - Votive Church (Votivkirche)
  - Parliament
  - State Opera (Staatsoper)
  - The University
- Museums:
  - Army Museum
  - Jewish Museum
  - Jewish Square
  - Schloß Belvedere
  - Albertina
  - City Museum of Vienna
- Green Vienna:
  - City Parks
  - Central Cemetery

Study Abroad:
Multicultural Vienna
1871-1955:
From Habsburg Empire to Modern Republic

May 26th– June 16th, 2015

For more Information:
Professor Liz Ametsbichler
LA 332
liz.ametsbichler@mso.umt.edu

GRMN 291/MCLG 295
Multicultural Vienna: 1871-1955
3 Credits (Taught in English)
What You’ll Learn

This 3-credit course will examine Vienna as a multicultural center during the time period of 1871-1955. We will take a look at the history and politics of the time, particularly:

- multi-ethnicity
- language
- the cultural “scene” particularly around the turn of the century (fin-de-siècle)

In the this course, we will take a look at Vienna as a microcosm of the history and politics of the Habsburg Empire, including the construction of the Ringstraβe in the 19th century, WWI the First Republic and Red Vienna, the Anschluß to Nazi Germany, WWII, postwar occupation through the declaration of neutrality in 1955.

How You Can Prepare

There will be a 1-credit orientation course GRMN 291/ MCLG 295 offered Spring Semester 2015 as preparation for the Vienna course.

Other Options

This course is offered in conjunction with the UM School of Music’s Vienna Program 2015. Students will also have the option of enrolling in courses offered by UM Music faculty.

For more Information:

Professor Liz Ametsbichler
LA 332
liz.ametsbichler@mso.umt.edu