RUSSIAN MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Each student’s requirements depend upon which catalogue year will govern their graduation requirements. Please check the catalogue or with the Russian faculty members regarding the specifics of your requirements.

LANGUAGE COURSES (These are to be taken sequentially):

- RUSS 101: Elementary Russian I (5 credits)
- RUSS 102: Elementary Russian II (5 credits)
- RUSS 201: Intermediate Russian I (4 credits)
- RUSS 202: Intermediate Russian II (4 credits)
- RUSS 301: Russian Oral and Written Expression I (3 credits)
- RUSS 302: Russian Oral and Written Expression II (3 credits)

“HYBRID” COURSES: LANGUAGE/LITERATURE COURSES:

(Any three of these courses are required. They have a prerequisite of 202 or equivalent and may be taken in any order.)

- RUSS 411: 19th-c. Major Russian Authors (3 credits)
- RUSS 412: 20th-c. Major Russian Authors (3 credits)
- RUSS 424: The Russian Short Story (3 credits)
- RUSS 440: Russian Poetry (3 credits)

COURSES IN TRANSLATION:

(Students take any two of the three 300-level courses. The Intro to Culture course, Seminar, and a Russian history course -- through the History department -- are required for everyone. The seminar meets the upper-division writing requirement for Russian majors and should be taken after successful completion of the Writing Proficiency Assessment. The other courses listed here have no prerequisites.

- RUSS/MCLG 105HY: Introduction to Russian Culture (3 credits)
- RUSS/MCLG 306L: Introduction to Russian Literature I (19th-c.) (3 credits)
- RUSS/MCLG 307L: Introduction to Russian Literature II (post 19th-c.) (3 credits)
- RUSS/MCLG 308: Russian Cinema (3 credits)
- RUSS/MCLG 494W: Seminar in Russian Studies (3 credits)
- An upper-division course in Russian History (3 credits)

THE RUSSIAN MINOR AND THE RUSSIAN STUDIES MINOR

Courses for the Russian Minor are taken through the MCLL department. This Minor requires the completion of two years of Russian language plus 12 credits of any of our upper-division classes. The Russian Studies Minor is interdisciplinary and so coursework is to be completed through a variety of departments. The co-directors of the Russian Studies minor are Robert Greene, Clint Walker, and Ona Renner-Fahey. This Minor requires second-year proficiency in the language, the Intro to Russian Culture course, one upper-division Russian history course, and 6 credits of other upper-division coursework (3 credits through MCLL and 3 from a third department/discipline.)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Russian Minor:</th>
<th>Russian Studies Minor:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Elementary Russian (I &amp; II)</td>
<td>1. Second-year proficiency</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>101 (5 credits)</td>
<td>2. MCLG 105 Intro to Culture</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>102 (5 credits)</td>
<td>3. Russian History</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>201 (4 credits)</td>
<td>4. MCLG/RUSS course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>202 (4 credits)</td>
<td>5. Course in third discipline</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. 12 credits of Upper Division work

---

Dr. Ona Renner-Fahey, LA 316       Dr. Clint Walker, LA 330       Dr. Robert Greene, LA 258