GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL LANGUAGE MAJORS

- Minimum overall GPA of 2.5 in upper-division language courses
- UM writing requirements: WRIT 101, an approved lower-division writing class, WPA Exam, and an approved upper-division writing class
- UM requires a minimum of 120 credits for graduation
- UM-required perspectives
- UM-required 39 upper-division credits
- See UM catalogue for Minor and Area Studies requirements

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE SPANISH MAJOR
(Spanish 101 through 202, or equivalent)

Students must complete a total of 30 credits of upper-division Spanish language and literature classes, which must include:

- SPNS 301 Oral and Written Expression in Cultural Contexts
- SPNS 326 Introduction to Contemporary Spanish Literature
- SPNS 331 Introduction to the Literature of Contemporary Latin America

Three courses at the 400-level (SPNS 400, 432, 465, 466, 494, or 491/492, but NOT SPNS 408):

- SPNS 4--
- SPNS 4--
- SPNS 4--

The remaining 12 credits could be completed by taking any combination of the following courses:

- SPNS 305 Spanish Phonetics
- SPNS 306 Commercial Spanish
- SPNS 308 Intensive Spanish Abroad
- SPNS 321 Advance Practice in Conversational Spanish
- SPNS 355 Special Topics in Hispanic Literature and Culture
- SPNS 359 Spanish American Civilization through Literature and Film
- SPNS 391 Special Topics
- SPNS 393 Omnibus
- SPNS 392 Independent Study
- SPNS 400 Applied Linguistics
- SPNS 408 Advanced Composition and Conversation
- SPNS 432 Latin American Literature
- SPNS 465 Spanish Literature: Renaissance and Golden Age
- SPNS 466 Spanish Literature: Modern and Contemporary
- SPNS 491 Special Topics
- SPNS 494 Seminar
- SPNS 492 Independent Study

* All majors must also complete MCLG 315L Major Hispanic Authors*