This on-line course examines black women's individual and collective struggles for freedom from racism, sexism, and heteropatriarchy as well as black women's participation in and challenge to social movements including Suffrage, Women's Liberation, Civil Rights, Black Power, and the Black Lives Matter Movement.
This on-line course examines black women's individual and collective struggles for freedom from racism, sexism, and heteropatriarchy as well as black women's participation in and challenge to social movements including Suffrage, Women's Liberation, Civil Rights, Black Power, and the Black Lives Matter Movement.