

The Granite Mountain Star (Jan. 1890 to Oct. 1891)
Granite, MT

January 18th, 1890

Sam Lee

Wash House

Hickey Street, Granite, Mont.

January 25th, 1890

The celestial brethren celebrated their New Year's, which occurred on Monday the 26th, with exciting loyalty.

April 12th, 1890

The Chinese-Cronan case of Granite came up for hearing before Judge Durfee, in the district court, at Deer Lodge Monday, and was dismissed on ground that no judgment was entered against Cronin when tried in the justice court at Philipsburg last month. Witness to the case from Granite were Sam Green, P. Gallagher, Wm. Lorella and Tim Sweeney.

May 24th, 1890

James Carten, an officer of Granite for the past five years, has disposed of his Main street property to a Chinese merchant and pulled his freight Friday for Deer Lodge where he goes as deputy sheriff of the county. Mr. Carten is a well tried officer of the law who attends to his duties with discreteness and the very best of his ability. We wish him success in his new field of labor.

June 14th, 1890

At the residence of Tim Lee last Saturday, Judge Gallagher solemnized the marriage of Uh Kim and Tim Lee. E.J. Harley, J.E. Cleary and Sam Green witnessed the tying match and gave the bride in marriage.

June 14th, 1890

La Lung has remodeled the Cartes stand on Main St. and converted the same into a restaurant. See his ad. In this issue.

June 14th, 1890

Butte-Granite

Restaurant

Yee Long, Pro.

Meals, 25 cents; meal tickets, $5. Extras furnished on application. Main-st., Granite.

July 19th, 1890

A fire broke out in the Oakland restaurant of Sam Ling, Friday of last week but was extinguished in time to save the town.

June 6th, 1891

Sam Lee, an old time Granite wash-e-man has returned from the “Celestial Kingdom” looking hale and wearing a mighty long “pig tail.” In reply to a question asked Sam regarding his family, he said, “my wife-e chilen look-e well-heap fat.”

July 4th, 1891

Abe Johnson has been successful in having his arm restored to usefulness by a Chinese docor in Butte.

August 29th, 1891

The Bon Ton, a Chinese restaurant on Broadway, is being weather boarded and painted.