

APPLICATION FORM
The Baldrige Book Subvention Fund

The Baldrige Book Subvention Fund supports the publishing of scholarly books by H&S faculty in the areas of African American Studies, Economics, English, History, Liberal Studies, Linguistics, Modern and Classical Languages & Literatures, Native American Studies, Philosophy and Women and Gender Studies. This fund is meant to support costs that an author may be obligated to pay to a publisher in order to accomplish production. Examples of such costs include photograph reproductions, translations and indexing.

This form is to be submitted to the H&S Dean's Office. Funds will be awarded on an ongoing basis.

Applicant: _____

Department: _____

Book Title: _____

Coauthors: _____

Publisher: _____

Amount of the contribution requested by the publisher: _____

Amount Requested from this Fund: _____

Amount Requested/Obtained From Other Sources: _____

PROCEDURE

H&S faculty members with subvention costs for publication of a book in the areas of History, Philosophy, and Religious Studies are encouraged to apply. The application package should include:

- This application form
- Brief statement describing the book and its importance to the field (One paragraph is OK; this may be shared with the Baldrige family)
- Book contract cover page
- A documented list of subvention costs (E.g. statement/receipt from the publisher, indexer, photographer etc.)