

Missoula Math Circle

Fall, 2013

UM campus 3:30-5:00

What are Math Circles?

“Math Circles are a form of education enrichment and outreach that bring mathematicians into direct contact with pre-college students. Students meet after school to work on interesting problems in mathematics. The goal is to get the students excited about the mathematics, giving them a setting that encourages them to become passionate about mathematics.” National Association of Math Circles
