

Get Paid to See the World

A Discussion on Fulbright and Study Abroad Programs

Tuesday March 13, 4:00PM to 5:00PM at LA 144

Snacks and Scholarships

A Discussion on External Funding and the Mitchell Scholarship

Wednesday March 14, 12:00PM to 2:00PM at LA 144

Ashleen Williams is a Senior Barksdale Fellow at the Sally McDonnell Barksdale Honors College (SMBHC) at the University of Mississippi where she teaches honors freshman seminars, leads adventure trips and engages students in critical and pressing questions. As an undergraduate at the University of Montana, Williams was ASUM President. After graduating from the University, Ashleen was selected for a U.S. Fulbright English Teaching Assistantship in Bahrain. As a 2013 Mitchell Scholar, Ashleen traveled to the University of Ulster to earn her M.Sc. in Applied Peace and Conflict Studies, learn to surf in the North Atlantic, and gain practical experience in conflict resolution. If you would like to touch base with Ashleen, you can email her at amwill17@olemiss.edu